1	Contact	Connecting on Social Media	Recruiter	Connect with a candidate on Social Media, like Linked In to see if they can fit any of my open positions	I can find someone who has the right skills and experiences to do the work that our hiring managers need.	I can easily connect with them on social media as way to validate their skills and experiences as well as contact them if they have the right skills/experiences.
2	Contact	Contacting through form	Recruiter	Contact a person that has the right skills and experiences needed for the job.	I can talk to them about the opportunities my company can offer them.	I have successfully connected with a candidate about a possible opportunity for the candidate.
3	Navigation Bar	Navigating through the site	Hiring manager	Easily find certain sections that help me find if the candidate is qualified for a position.	I can hire someone who has the capabilities to do the work.	I have found the specific sections such as skills, past work experience, or contact info so that I can see if the candidate has the right skills I am looking for.
4	Skills	Finding specific skills	Recruiter	Find if a candidate has a specific skill needed for a job	I can hire someone who has the capabilities to do the work.	I can view the skills that the candidate has and clearly find an individual skill to see if it will align with what I am looking for.
5	About me	Finding basic about me information	Recruiter	Find out some basic information about who the candidate is and their preferences	I can hire someone who has a personality to match those of the team.	I have a better understand of the candidate and who they are as a person.
6	Education	Finding information about education	Recruiter	Find if a candidate has the right type of education needed for a job	I can hire someone who has the capabilities to do the work.	I can view information about the candidate's education and see if it aligns with what I am looking for.
7	Portfolio Popups	Finding information about projects	Hiring manager	Find if a candidate has experiences related or needed for a job	I can hire someone who has the capabilities to do the work or at least the ability to learn what is needed.	I can view the projects that the candidate has completed and see if those skills can align with what I am looking for.
8	Responsiveness	View website on the go	Recruiter, Hiring Manager	View the candidate's site on my mobile or tablet device to see if they are right for the job.	I can see the information I need from anywhere I may be	I can view the website from any device and it's still easy to understand and find the information I need to make an informed decision about the candidates ability and if they align with what I'm looking for.
